HER GREAT MATCH

The latest offering of the Metro Program is a unique romance entitled "Her Great Match," from the pen of that master story builder, Clyde Fitch, whose plays dealing with the age-old but over-new elements contained in love and femininity created their own vogue, when originally presented. Gail Kane, whose potent dramatic charms bewitched Broadway audiences in the stellar roles of "Seven Keys to Baldpate," "The Miracle Man" and other notable stage successes, is seen in the leading part in "Her Great Match," wherein she repeats the distinctive artistic efforts, which won for her such notable laurels on the speaking stage. "Her Great Match" is a five act romantic drama from the photoplay studio of Popular Plays and Players and will be seen at the Pastime today, afternoon night.

State Conclave of Maysville Commandery No. 10 K. T. this evening at 7 o'clock. Conference of degrees. All Sir Knights are urged to attend. Refreshments.

J. W. ELOIN, E. C. P. O. SMOOT, Recorder.

FOUR STRAIGHT

Lexington Won Saturday and Sunday Games and Cleared Upon the Series.

Lexington fought an up-hill battle with Maysville Sunday and won out in the ninth inning by making three runs, the final score being 8 to 6. By winning this game the Colts made it four straight victories from the locals, having a clean bill for the series.

Maysville seemingly had the game won until the terrible ninth inning finish. Skinner pitched the entire game for the locals and although he had been hit rather hard was keeping the score down to a safe point and was especially strong with men on bases. Manager Guyn was kept rather busy yanking his hurlers. Thomas, a southpaw, started the game for the visitors but lasted only three innings. Hannah took his place and managed to pull through two rounds. Burge then took up the burden and managed to pull through until the ninth when he was relieved by Lingrel.

With the score standing 6 to 5 in the ninth Wright, the first Lexington batter, walked and was sacrificed to second by McClellan. Beers bounced one to Kelly and was thrown out at first. Lingrel batted for Burge and knocked a home run, scoring Wright ahead of him. White singled, stole second and went to third on Kelly's error. Guyn singled scoring White, Barrett fanned.

The next three Maysville batters went down in one, two, three order. The box score follows:

Saturday's Game
Maysville lost Saturday's game to Lexington by the score of 18 to 4. After hitting Surrency for thirteen hits and sixteen runs Manager Jones went in for the locals and allows but two more runs to be scored. Rorer was hit hard by the locals but was never in danger owing to the large score piled up early in the game.

NOTES
Maysville is now on the road for eleven days, playing twelve games. The schedule of the trip is as follows: Huntington—May 22 to 25. Lexington—May 26 to 29. Charleston—May 30 to June 1. They return home on June 2 for four games with Frankfort and four with Charleston.

Pitcher Winnie French arrived Saturday morning and played center field the last six innings of Saturday's game. He was given an ovation when he stepped to the plate.

Mueller had a big day Sunday, getting a home run, triple and single out of four trips to the plate. In Saturday's swiftest Manager Guyn of the Colts secured two triples and two doubles out of five times at bat.

The fans are very much disappointed in the playing of Kelly at short. He is not putting up the class of ball that he did last year.

Rev. J. M. Lital, pastor of the Third Street M. E. Church, preached at the Union M. E. Church at Covington Sunday morning and evening in the absence of the regular pastor, who delivered the baccalaureate address to the graduating class at Union College, Barboursville. Rev. A. F. Felts of the Forest Avenue M. E. Church preached at the morning service at the Third Street Church, while Rev. H. D. Cooper of Dayton had charge of the evening service.

THE SLEEPING DOVE—MANY HEAR EVANGELIST LAST NIGHT

Despite the threatening weather last night, the Groves Warehouse was well filled with people coming from all sections of the city of Maysville. The chorus singing has not been better than that of last night. Special numbers were also sung by a quartette and by Earle Yearley. The latter sang by request the solo, "Some Where A Voice Is Calling" the sacred words to which were written by the evangelist.

The address of the evening was one of the characteristically good messages from Rev. Herbert Yeuell. The sermon was based on the story of the dove which after flying about found it necessary to return to the ark for rest and protection. He described the various wanderings of the human in search for pleasure which does not satisfy. The speaker's oratorical powers, his dramatic talents and his wonderful diction were put to test when he described in figurative language, the hypocrite in the church. These persons might be considered as enemies of the returning penitent who like the dove has found out in the world no rest. He had no patience with the man who could see in the church none but the hypocrite, human cock-reaches as he called them. These various animals in the ark did not prevent the dove from coming back to its only place of real rest, nor should the whole menagerie of hypocrites keep any person from coming back to God.

Both the morning and afternoon services were well attended. There was no invitation given in the Bible School but in the church service there were five more who responded to the invitation then given. The meeting tonight will be addressed by Evangelist Yeuell on the theme "Shall We Know Each Other In Heaven?"

HELP!

We would like to call the attention of the Board of Health to the nauseating smells that permeate the atmosphere on the Second street extension near the scene of the recent fire. What the cause is we do not know, but it more than likely that a little disinfectant would do much to alleviate the stench.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT

And Heads of Other Departments Announced For Maysville's Fifth Redpath Chautauqua.

Maysville's fifth Redpath chautauqua is to be held June 25 to July 6, inclusive. Mr. Will J. McEwen is to be superintendent. Dr. E. F. Daugherty, morning lecturer, and Miss Abigail McGillivray, children's worker.

For twenty years Mr. McEwen has been engaged in lyceum and chautauqua work and in that time he has witnessed the fine influence exercised on communities by these twentieth century methods of entertainment. He is thoroughly experienced and well able to conduct the week's program. In his series of morning lectures Mr. Daugherty is to draw lessons from modern books. His "Modern Challenge" "Inside the Cup". His interpretations are sure to please chautauqua patrons.

Miss McGillivray is especially fitted for director of children's work at the local chautauqua, having taken a special course of training in the Columbia College of Expression in Chicago. She is to meet with the children twice each day, and on the sixth night of the chautauqua, she is to have charge of a unique feature to be known as "The Mother Goose Festival."

There is every indication that this year's chautauqua will break all records for attendance and interest.

Rev. W. F. Jones, the Sunday School man, was a visitor in the city Saturday.
